How will the participant benefit from participation in this program?

Participants will benefit in different manners. Listed are some of the advantages that participants will gain through this experience:

- Awareness of the functions and responsibilities of elected officials to the community and to the individuals.
- Awareness and understanding of the community.
- Understanding of the different cultures in our community.
- Proper channels and avenues for personal and community advocacy.
- Federal, State, and local programming pertinent to the citizens of our community.
- Becoming a role model for their family and others.
- Learning how to become a contributing member of the community.
- Volunteerism and Civic engagement.
- Professional development.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, our community's success depends on making sure that all residents feel welcome here. Today, new residents are a vital part of our community, bringing fresh perspective and new ideas, starting businesses, and contributing to the vibrant diversity that we all value; and

WHEREAS, this week we honor the spirit of unity that is bringing neighbors together across Dodge City. During Welcoming Week, I invite all residents of Dodge City to join this movement of communities nationwide by renewing our commitment to our core American values and by taking action in the spirit of welcoming. By working together, we can achieve greater prosperity and make Dodge City the kind of place where diverse people from around the world feel valued and want to put down roots; and

WHEREAS, regardless of where we are born or what we look like, we are residents, united in our efforts to build a stronger Dodge City. By recognizing the contributions that we all make to create a vibrant culture and a growing economy, we make our community more prosperous and more inclusive to all who call it home.

WHEREAS, let us come together to build communities where every resident has the opportunity to contribute at his or her best. Let us come together to create more prosperous communities and to reaffirm that Dodge City still stands as a beacon of freedom and opportunity.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that I, Rick Sowers, Mayor of Dodge City, do hereby proclaim September 16-25, 2016 as

Welcoming Week

and call upon the people of Dodge City to join together to build a stronger community.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the City of Dodge City to be affixed this 19th day of September 2016.

OVERVIEW

Dear Valued Partner,

We are so excited for the 5th annual Welcoming Week in September, a series of events where communities bring together new and long-time residents in a spirit of unity to raise awareness of the benefits of welcoming everyone – including new Americans.

By hosting an event, you are part of a movement of more and more communities across the United States and the world who recognize that immigrants and refugees make our communities stronger economically, socially, and culturally.

Thank you for joining us; we are proud of the growing number of local and national partners who continue to make this event a success.

This toolkit contains materials to help you make your local Welcoming Week event a success, including:

- Welcoming Week background
- Event checklist and tips for success
- Event inspiration
- Sample press release
- Sample Welcoming Proclamation

Welcoming Week is a time to demonstrate how, in communities large and small, rural and urban, people of all backgrounds are coming together to create stronger communities. It is a time to celebrate the values that unite us as neighbors, parents, and colleagues, and to make our communities more welcoming to newcomers, and to everyone who calls our community home.

Together, we can make every community in America the kind of place where diverse people from around the world feel valued and want to put down roots. Together, we can build a nation of neighbors.

Thank you for joining us, and please don't hesitate to reach out to us if we can help you to make your Welcoming Week efforts a success.

Sincerely,

Welcoming America

— WELCOMING WEEK BACKGROUND —

Momentum is building in the welcoming movement, and more and more communities across the United States and the world are recognizing that immigrants and refugees make our communities stronger economically, socially, and culturally.

During this annual series of events through Welcoming America and its partners, communities bring together new and long-time residents in a spirit of unity to raise awareness of the benefits of welcoming everyone – including new Americans. More and more communities across the United States and the world are recognizing that immigrants and refugees make our communities stronger economically, socially, and culturally.

In 2015, there were 245 events in over 80 communities during Welcoming Week, with more than 22,000 people participating.

Welcoming America is a nonpartisan, nonprofit organization that is leading a movement of inclusive communities becoming more prosperous by making everyone who lives there feel like they belong. As communities are reshaped by demographic change, there must be an intentional effort to manage that transformation. Our unique focus is helping communities move beyond divisiveness and fragmentation to a coordinated web of policies and programs that ensure that all residents—including immigrants—can fully participate and belong. We partner with more than 100 communities across the United States; are the nonprofit partner to the White House's Building Welcoming Communities Campaign; and are piloting international welcoming efforts in Germany and Australia. Learn how your community can become a more welcoming place: www.welcomingamerica.org.

ORGANIZING VOLUNTEER EVENTS

Build Relationships through volunteer events that bring together immigrants and receiving community members. Volunteer projects help people from diverse communities come together and get to know each other, while also doing something positive for the community.

TIPS TO GET STARTED

1. Establish a clear purpose:

Communicate the purpose of your event in a concise way. Remember, the goal is to have fun and get all the participants to interact with each other.

2. Identify a group volunteer projects:

Family-friendly events are highly recommended. Be sure to establish clear communication with a representative from your partner organization. (Ex. Parks and Recreation Department for a park cleanup to provide the necessary tools.)

3. Identify individuals to participate and lead the event:

Make sure you have a clear plan for engaging both immigrants and receiving community members in planning and executing the event.

4. Make your event known:

Create and widely distribute a simple flyer through hard copies as well as email, text, and Facebook. Start with people you are connected with and ask them to distribute it to their friends and networks.

5. Press releases:

Send press releases to local newspapers (including foreign language papers, if applicable to your area).

6. Plan the event to encourage new relationships:

For example, at a park cleanup you can gather everyone, explain directions, and send people out in small groups with people they don't know. Let the participants know at the beginning that part of the mission is to be meeting new people. Encourage mingling.

7. Thank and recognize the participants:

Ask them for their feedback and future participation. Some volunteers can be asked to take a future leadership role in planning your next event.

WELCOMING WEEK ACTIVITIES FROM AROUND THE COUNTRY

Denver, CO: “Stories of Integration”, a photography storytelling experience, was displayed throughout Welcoming Week. This display was designed to share the stories of immigrants and refugees in Denver. The Mayor of Denver signed a Welcoming Denver Day proclamation during the meeting of his Immigrant and Refugee Commission, a membership group of many prominent refugees in the Denver community.

Omaha, NE : Throughout September in Omaha, refugee and immigrant community members learned about government, met elected officials, and learned how to use their voices and leadership through the New American Civic Academy. The Quilted Conscience held a week long quilting workshop with Karen students from a local schools. At the end of the week, there was a family day with a quilt unveiling, music, and food.

Jacksonville, FL: A Welcoming Institute graduate coordinated four welcoming dinners that included a cooking lesson, dinner, and facilitated discussion. During these dinners, families from Cuba, Iraq, Ethiopia, and Burma welcomed U.S.-born residents into their homes.

Cities such as Baltimore, Nashville, and Atlanta announced major policy initiatives to improve the lives of immigrants and to foster a welcoming environment regardless of race, ethnicity, or place of origin.

Finding Common Ground

Ron Wilson

- Presented by Ron Wilson, news and radio personality
- An overview of recent economic and population changes across the state.
- Explorations of stories of Kansas communities that are demonstrating positive growth with new immigrants.

Official letter KAN01740

Kansas City, Missouri, September 6th, 2016

Dear friends and stakeholders in Southwest Kansas,

As part of the continuous outreach the Consulate of Mexico in Kansas City performs in its jurisdiction, I will be visiting Dodge City this coming Friday, September 9th, 2016. The purpose is to hold a meeting with public officials, law enforcement authorities, community leaders and representatives of academic institutions for learning directly from you on the role the Consulate of Mexico can play for better integrate and empower the Mexican and Hispanic community in Garden City, Dodge City and Liberal.

Given the fact that close to 35,000 people who identify themselves as Mexican live in those three cities and account for more than 45% of their population, I look forward to identify new opportunities of collaboration and areas where we can double our efforts for better serving them.

During the meeting I hope to discuss the consular programs for assisting Mexican nationals in emergency situations, documentation services and Mobile Consulates, itinerant cultural exhibitions, on-line educational programs, citizenship and immigration services, as well as emergency preparedness.

I hope to have the chance to personally meet with you on September 9th, at the Dodge City Municipal Courtroom, located at 806 N 2nd Avenue, Dodge City, Kansas 67801, at 4:00 pm.

Sincerely,

Alfonso Navarro-Bernachi
Consul General of Mexico in Kansas City
