Whereas, In 1872, J. Sterling Morton proposed to the Nebraska Board of Agriculture that a special day be set aside for the planting of trees, and

Whereas, this holiday, called Arbor Day, was first observed with the planting of more than a million trees in Nebraska, and

Whereas, Arbor Day is now observed throughout the nation and the world, and

Whereas, trees can reduce the erosion of our precious topsoil by wind and water, cut heating and cooling costs, moderate the temperature, clean the air, produce life-giving oxygen, and provide habitat for wildlife, and

Whereas, trees are a renewable resource giving us paper, wood for our homes, fuel for our fires and countless other wood products, and

Whereas, trees in our city increase property values, enhance the economic vitality of business areas, and beautify our community, and

Whereas, trees, wherever they are planted, are a source of joy and spiritual renewal.

Now, Therefore, I, _______________________, Mayor of the City of Dodge City Kansas, do hereby proclaim Friday, April 26th, 2019, as

Date: April 11, 2019
Subject: Ratify the Purchase of Property on Park Street
Agenda Item: Consent Calendar

Recommendation: I recommend the City Commission ratify the purchase of 1407 Park Street also known as the Jackson Property.

Background: The City Commission previously discussed the purchase of property on Park Street from Harold and Carol Jackson. In November of 2018 the Mayor signed an agreement for an option to purchase the property from Harold and Carol Jackson for a total of $150,000 to be paid; $15,000 upon execution of the agreement, $10,000 to be paid at closing, $25,000 on January 15, 2019, $50,000 on January 15, 2020 and $50,000 on January 15, 2021. In December, 2018 Harold and Carol Jackson executed the deed to sell the property to the City of Dodge City.

The property was purchased because it was located adjacent to the current Park shop and the desire is to locate all Public Works shops at that location sometime in the future. Additional properties on Park Street are in the process of being purchased.

Justification: The transaction has been complete and staff is asking for formal action by the City Commission to ratify the purchase of the property.

Financial Considerations: Payments totaling $150,000 over 4 years.

Purpose/Mission: To value progress, growth and new possibilities.

Legal Considerations: All legal actions have been met

Attachments: Contract and Deed

Memorandum

To: Cherise Tieben, City Manager
   City Commissioners
From: Troy Brown, Parks and Facilities Director
Date: April 15th, 2019
Subject: Contract for 4th of July Fireworks Display
Agenda Item: Consent Agenda

Recommendation: Staff requests Commission approval to enter into contract with Wald’s All American Display Fireworks in the amount of $25,000 for the 4th of July fireworks show. The contract for 2019 allows for a rescheduled date within a 3 month period of the original showing.

Background: Wald’s has provided all of the fireworks shows for the Old Dodge City event since we first started in 1998 with this being the 21st year. They have provided well designed shows, choreographed with music that has developed Dodge City’s reputation as a premier show in the state. Again this year the 4th of July committee is working to coordinate with other agencies and organizations to promote activities planned for the day and then culminate with the fireworks show at 10:00 PM that night. The show will be shot from the Dodge City Roudup Rodeo Grounds located at 608 S. 14th Ave. This will be the first year at this location. The fireworks committee had to relocate the show, which for the past 20 years had been held near Morgan Blvd on the north side of the city.

Justification: The Dodge City show is the largest display in western Kansas and local response is overwhelmingly positive. This show draws people into the community from all around the area. Wald’s has provided excellent service and quality displays for the event since its inception. The planning committee has met and recommends to continue contracting with Wald for the display.

Financial Considerations: The contract amount for the show is $25,000. Of the total expense, the City covers $5,000 from the Non-Departmental budget. The remainder is raised by the local fireworks committee through corporate and individual sponsors. The committee is already working towards that goal and is sending out solicitation letters. The group has also developed some additional fund raising strategies to support the program.

Purpose/Mission: The City’s support of this program is consistent with the mission of the City to improve quality of life as it enhances a community wide event celebrating our history and providing entertainment for our citizens.

Legal Considerations: Liability issues with this activity are covered by Wald & Co. through a certificate of insurance with coverage limit of $5,000,000 for public liability and property damage.

Memorandum

To: City Manager & City Commission
From: Jan Stevens Director CVB
Date: 4-8-19
Subject: Dodge City CVB Marketing Analysis
Item: New Business

Recommendation: Allow staff to negotiate a contract with Imagemakers from Wamego Kansas, for the purpose of analyzing the current Dodge City Convention and Visitors Bureau (CVB) marketing programs. This company will conduct a marketing audit of past and current marketing, communications and advertising efforts to market the tourism assets of the city of Dodge City. The audit will be a tool to help the CVB identify its most urgent marketing and communications challenges, highlighting efforts which are successful and those which need improvement while serving as a basis to develop future marketing strategies.

Background: The CVB released an RFQ on March 1st 2019, with a deadline of March 12th, 2019. Fourteen inquires, and twelve proposals were received. Six agencies were identified as potentially viable proposals. Interviews took place on April 4th and 5th, with a selection committee comprised of a panel of local representatives. The panel consisted of several of the Convention and Visitors Bureau staff, Director Jan Stevens, Senior Marketing Director of Boot Hill Casino and Resort, Jessi Rabe, President of the Dodge City Area Chamber of Commerce, Tara Burkhart, Convention and Visitors Bureau Advisory Board Members, Beth Rhoten, owner of Longs, and Kim Cuningham, owner of both Best Westerns in Dodge City, and Assistant City Manager, Melissa McCoy.

The consensus of the committee was in favor of Imagemakers.

Expected outcomes from the audit:
- Evaluate the Marketing Environment including but not limited to, customer demographics, competitors, and macro-environments.
- Evaluate current marketing activities, products, and offerings, including creative pieces: print, television, jingle and tag line.
- Evaluate and review current website, blogs, social media and other digital placements content with an emphasis on objectives and implementation.
- Determine and make recommendations to improve the effectiveness for an overall marketing activity plan and direction for tourism in the Dodge City community, including distribution of target markets, ad placements, and publicity.
- Recommend suggested distribution of marketing funds and emphasis based on other tourism DMO’s best practices and innovative approaches.
• Outline opportunities to allow the community to develop and expand its reach beyond current target audiences.
• The report should be a tool to help the Dodge City community identify its most urgent marketing and communications challenges, highlighting efforts which are successful and those which need improvement while serving as a basis to develop future marketing strategies and directions for tourism.
• Provide a suggested Scope of Services and a proposed budget to implement the scope.

Justification: as the DMO (Destination Marketing Organization), the CVB has been the responsible party for the marketing of Dodge City’s tourism offerings. Our community has made many milestone changes in the past few years, and has created a diverse tourism presence. There will be a new look to Boot Hill Museum, the addition of the Water Park has proven that Dodge City sees many out of town visitors, that seek excitement in the outdoors. Additionally, last November the CVB experienced a surge of negative comments on our Facebook page that was a result of the controversy over the voter polling place location. As that issue spurred conversation on how best to deal with that particular crisis, more conversation took place on the need for an overall analysis of the general marketing of the community, and what the next step would be in propelling Dodge City into a diverse “Must See” destination.

Financial Considerations: There is $25,000 set aside in the CVB budget to fund this study.

Purpose/Mission: This study will aid the CVB in the mission of the pursuit to promote and market Dodge City and area resources, attractions, and assets to prospective tourists, by making a recommendation for future marketing projects.

Legal Considerations: The City of Dodge City Attorney will review the contract.

From our research, personal visits and your RFQ, we understand that Dodge City is one of the nation’s most important and historic “Western” cities. The educational, cultural and entertainment opportunities the city offers are unique. From the days of the Santa Fe Trail and notorious lawmen to modern immigration and current attractions (the Boot Hill Museum, casinos, resorts, arenas and establishments like the Boot Hill Distillery), Dodge City has an extraordinary opportunity to become a premier destination. The city’s commitment to revitalizing its historic downtown and to fostering a welcoming, multi-cultural environment bode well for the city’s growth.

To realize the promise of its future, the CVB is seeking a robust research engagement to uncover the most effective ways to share the Dodge City story, cement the City as a premier destination, and sustain year-over-year increases in visitors to the City’s numerous offerings.

The right consultant will conduct a thorough audit of all marketing, communications and advertising efforts. This audit, and the insights and recommendations that emerge, will highlight the most successful efforts, identify opportunities for improvement, and provide recommendations for strategic marketing and communications going forward.
Our team has deep experience and a passion for developing communities, businesses and organizations. With backgrounds in the New York City agency world, Los Angeles and across the Midwest, our leadership team has the skills, breadth of expertise, and commitment to excellence this project requires.

PROJECT PHASES
Phase 1: Communications and Brand Audit (2-3 Weeks)

In this phase we will seek to understand the Dodge City brand and communications to identify the most urgent marketing and communications challenges — and the opportunities.

Activities

Kick-off Meeting with immediate project team

• To understand climate, dynamics and key players
• To check-in on project updates, timing, etc.
• To review marketing and communications efforts and materials
• To gather information about Dodge City target audiences and key competitors
• To confirm research activities we will conduct and define our collaboration to achieve them

Communications Workshop with all stakeholders

• To hear directly from full team about the challenges and opportunities facing Dodge City
• To use interactive exercises to explore key aspects of the Dodge City brand, business and audience needs, pain points, challenges and opportunities
• To review key marketing and communications pieces and efforts as a group looking for strengths, key themes, successful efforts and areas that need improvement
• To gain shared vision of the need and opportunity to ensure project alignment

Brand and Communications Audit

• Imagemakers team reviews all materials
• Imagemakers gathers key insights, trends, inspiration and best practices
Building on Phase 1, we will research two critical aspects of the project— the consumer and the market. This phase seeks to understand the mindset and decision-making of target audiences and to understand the competitive landscape.

Activities

- Focus Groups. Hold focus groups to understand audience mindset and decision points
  - Dodge City: Two focus groups with citizens and business owners to understand the offering and benefits of visiting Dodge City. We will rely on the collaboration of the DC team to help with invitation lists and to acquire free meeting space.
  - Audience markets: Collaborate with the Dodge City team to define up to four focus groups in targeted communities within 100-300 miles.
    - NOTE: To contain budget and increase effectiveness, we assume a collaborative approach to determining locations and inviting focus group participants (we need 6-10+ to be worthwhile). If we have to subcontract focus group organization in each market, and include high participant payments to ensure participation, we will need to increase the budget. We believe we can work together to accomplish our research goal and use focus groups as an effective information-gathering tool.

- Interviews. Hold up to 12 interviews with key audience members, such as influencers, travel businesses, educational institutions, and the like, to understand consumer and market.

- Online Survey. Create an online questionnaire to understand the consumer and the market. Use existing social and online resources, as well as select and secure additional research and digital tools, to maximize response.

- Competitive audit. Review up to 12 cities or destinations to understand the competition and determine key points of value, differentiation and distinction.

- Brand analysis. Bringing the communications audit, consumer insights, and market research together, we will analyze the Dodge City brand.
  - We will evaluate the visual and written brand looking for opportunities to strengthen
    - Visual: Logo, colors, graphics, photo and video styles and overall look
    - Written: Positioning, tagline, major themes, key message platform
PROJECT PHASES

• Summary of research conducted

• Summary of each phase with data, findings and insights
  • Marketing and communications challenges, successes, opportunities, lessons being learned
  • Brand refinements for written and visual elements, as well as refinements to leverage the brand heritage and create a purposeful, differentiated positioning platform

  • Detailed recommendations to make future planning and execution actionable, such as:
    • Marketing opportunities, campaign structures (web, email, video, social), print and digital advertising planning

CASE STUDIES

Creating “Destination Value”

We are sharing two examples that detail campaigns designed to
1) Raise awareness
2) Elevate a brand
3) Increase visitors

These examples illustrate the power of marketing at the intersection of brand elevation, business targets, and audience activation.

Our approach creates a powerful sense of “destination value” in the mind of person considering where to spend time, especially if they are attracted to the value and values Dodge City offers to visitors — history, education, entertainment, business and more.
1. City of Wamego

Wamego is known across the state, and with select audiences across the nation, as a one-of-a-kind “Heartland” destination. Imagemakers is based in Wamego and we have a long history working with city leaders, the CVB and the Chamber to elevate the profile of the town by strategically partnering with key institutions.

We have created marketing campaigns, built websites and elevated the Wamego brand to increases visitors. Specifically, we have partnered with and built sites for:

- The Oz Museum (ozmuseum.com)
- The Columbian Theater (columbiantheatre.com)
- The City of Wamego (wamego.org)
- Visit Wamego / 4th of July Fireworks (visitwamego.com and visitwamego.com/july4th)

1. Why was this particular community an appropriate example?

Imagemakers worked proactively and strategically with Wamego civic and cultural leaders over a 10 year period to substantially increase the City’s destination value. As key cultural elements rose in prominence, and the City prioritized its downtown, three things became together:

- Enthusiasm among leaders and citizens
- Investment in the downtown — by both the City and old and new business owners
- Increased traffic. The profile rose across the state through media, digital presence, and word-of-mouth. As a result visits to Wamego increased year-over-year.

2. What services did you provide?

We provided strategic, brand, communications and digital marketing experience. We partnered closely, and at times pro bono, with civic and cultural leaders. Together, we created a groundswell of support for the town and its growth. Our expertise, strategic approach and digital work contributed significantly to the process.
1. City of Wamego (cont.)

3. What was successful and why?
Three key successes come to mind:

- Partnership. The excellent partnership we built and have maintained with civic leaders, cultural institutions and everyday citizens significantly advanced the process. Our expertise and services empowered City and cultural institutions to articulate their vision — and to realize it.

- Digital communications. Through strategic websites and digital campaigns Wamego has stepped firmly onto the regional stage and has the fundamental communication and marketing tools to reach and attract visitors.

- Increase in visitors. Attendance at the 4th of July parade and fireworks, at Columbian Theater events and at the Oz Museum — and the economic spillover to neighboring business — is evidence of the overall success of our relationship with the town.

4. What would you do different and why?
Ideally, the work would have proceeded both more rapidly and more strategically. With limited funds available to pay Imagemakers and for us to donate our time, some of the work proceeded gradually over time. In addition, the vision of a revitalized downtown and the concept of creating “destination value” took time to coalesce.

5. How did you measure and report return on investment?
Imagemakers was not tasked with measuring online traffic and visitors so we do not have hard numbers to share. But, again, we can testify to the dramatic increase in the 4th of the July parade and fireworks as well as to the revitalized downtown that contributes so much to the quality of life in the town and to attract visitors.
CASE STUDIES

1. City of Wamego (The Oz Museum)

“We quickly discovered we could trust Imagemakers implicitly. They knew exactly what was needed and how to go about it within our budget. It truly felt like a partnership. I would recommend Imagemakers to anyone.”

1. City of Wamego (Municipal Communications)

City Parks
Wamego has a fine inventory of parks, offering a variety of amenities for both active and passive recreation. All Wamego parks and the Cemetery are maintained by the Parks and Cemetery Department. Personnel at this department also trim streets trees for greater visibility to motorists and pedestrians, and to provide a more attractive environment for residents.

Contact the City for Cemetery Lot Purchases or Research Apointments.

Riverfront Park
Riverfront Park is located immediately west of the Lincoln Avenue (K-99) bridge over the Kansas River, but is reached from 8th Street, one block west via valley bridge. The park’s boat ramp provides much needed access to the river. Plenty of parking and turn-around space is available. Restrooms will soon be completed.

CASE STUDIES

1. City of Wamego (Visit Wamego - 4th of July Fireworks)
Humanities Kansas engaged Imagemakers to solidify the organization as the statewide humanities leader to stakeholders, funders, donors and new partners. They sought to clarify and elevate the Humanities Kansas brand and create a new positioning and messaging platform that would 1) be infused with the power of storytelling, 2) be refined for storytelling, and 3) guide the creation of a visual brand that would be engaging, intelligent, modern, fresh, bold and fun.

We began with a robust research phase to uncover the insights and recommendations that would:

- Establish the organization as the go-to humanities organization in the state
- Dramatically increase participation in programming, grant applications and partnerships.

Research

- 2 meetings with board’s rebranding task force
- Multiple work sessions with leadership
- 3 focus groups
- 12 interviews
- E-Survey
- Competitive audit
- Communications audit
- Brand exploration
- Additional secondary research

From this research we produced a 71-page presentation and a report of research findings and recommendations. For brevity in this RFQ, we will share key insights and recommendations that informed the creative and implementation phases of the project.

Key Insights

- People struggle to define the humanities and Humanities Kansas, and to see relevance.
- HK is admired by its loyalists. Stakeholders want it to become more relevant and serve many more people.
- Participants, notably people of color, posed powerful questions about relevance to diverse communities and where HK stands on issues of justice.
- Programs and services dominate the approach of peer entities.
- People want to know how HK makes an impact. What’s the social ROI?
- It’s safe to remove “Council” from the name.

Key Research Takeaways

The Kansas Humanities Council is not simply a provider of information and resources. It is a cause worthy of passionate support and driver of a movement of ideas/people exploring stories that spark conversations to generate ideas and inspire community engagement.

- Shift messaging from What We Do to Why It Matters.
- Reposition KHC as a cause worthy of passionate support.
- Activate participants to join a movement of ideas with next-generation programming and specific engagement campaigns.
- Remove Council from name. We recommend Humanities Kansas.

1. Why was this particular community an appropriate example for us?

We include Humanities Kansas as a powerful example of creating “destination value” of a different kind — value for an organization with different goals: 1) Increase participation at events across the state, 2) increase participation in grant applications, and 3) increased participation in strengthening civic engagement with new partnerships.

Again, to increase visitors, we believe it is critical to market at the intersection of brand elevation, business goals and audience awareness and activation. As a result of our work, Humanities Kansas has seen significant growth, including increased participation at events — notably by a younger, more diverse audience. See question 5 below.
2. What services did you provide?

- Research
- Communications and brand strategy
- Messaging and visual brand development
- Website
- Video
- Online grant platform
- Business papers and print collateral
- Brand style guide
- And more

3. What was successful and why?

Feedback from staff, the Board of Directors, participants, donors and staff from many state humanities councils, as well as leaders from the National Endowment for the Humanities, has been confirming (and flattering). The new positioning and messaging platform, as well as the visual brand, video, new grant platform and marketing collateral have been universally loved and effective.

The partnership we developed with both the leadership and Board of Humanities Kansas was critical to the success of this project. Leadership created space for us to do our best work and our collaboration was always inspiring, pushing us all to go above and beyond to create solutions that would inform, inspire and activate. The Board was engaged throughout and contributed key ideas and feedback that elevated the work. In short, the unity of thought, vision and action drove this project above and beyond expectations.

4. What would you do different and why?

We wish there had been more budget to pursue two lines of questions that emerged during the research that related specifically to relevance and inclusivity. While we did a handful of additional interviews at no charge to resolve the questions, we would have welcomed the opportunity to run an additional focus group of young, diverse Kansans to uncover even more insights. In addition, it would have been ideal to have budget to fully craft a social media marketing campaign.

5. How did you measure and report return on investment?
While we weren’t specifically charged with measuring response, we have collaborated closely with leadership to ensure results. We have provided free consultation on social marketing, and have created specific marketing templates and pieces to advance the work.

This is a snapshot of things that happened in the first six months of the rebrand:

• Grant inquiries to Humanities Kansas tripled
• Donor base grew by 20
• Social media followers have grown by 500 (now it’s actually closer to 600)
• 9 new volunteers
• Created a new staff position – Director of Outreach and Inclusion
• 20 new organizations reached out for collaboration
• The makeup of events is changing. A recent event had 50% of participants below the age of 30 and 70% diversity.
“Here we are midway through launch day and I wanted to send along another round of Thank Yous. We’ve been hearing from a number of our peers across the nation and Kansas and the responses have been overwhelmingly positive. Most specifically mention the powerful new messaging — especially the movement of ideas concept — as striking just the right chord. People are relating to the humanness of the website and, of course, loving the video. It’s funny, but the name change seems to not be much of a big deal at all.

Your research was exactly right.”

“We all managed to create a love letter to both the values that are so important to us as well as the humanities. The positivity of the video adds a bit of old school boosterism that is precisely needed in today’s divisive landscape. It’s important to make people want to join in, do something, and feel good about who we are and where we’re going.”
